You should disclose all material facts as failure to do so could invalidate the policy. A material fact is information which is likely to influence an insurer in the assessment and acceptance of a risk. You must disclose all material facts about yourself, any other drivers, the vehicles and it's use that is known to you at the time of applying for this insurance. If you have any doubt as to whether a fact is material or not then please disclose it now in the following box to avoid any chance of invalidating the policy or prejudicing a claim payment.

Part C – Declaration

If you have not given full and true answers to all questions asked on this Proposal, your insurance may not protect you in the event of a claim.

If you wish to disclose something that has not been disclosed elsewhere in this Proposal, please use the box provided here.

Before signing the Declaration, please read the notices on this page about the Claims and Underwriting Exchange Register and Data Protection Notice.

Claims and Underwriting Exchange Register

Insurers pass information to the Claims and Underwriting Exchange Register, run by Insurance Database Services Ltd (IDS Ltd) and the Motor Insurance Anti-Fraud and Theft Register, run by the Association of British Insurers (ABI). The aim is to help us to check information provided and also to prevent fraudulent claims. Under the conditions of your policy you must tell us about any incident (such as an accident or theft) which may or may not give rise to a claim. When you tell us about an incident we will pass information relating to it, to the register.

Your policy details will be added to the Motor Insurance Database (MID), run by the Motor Insurers Information Centre (MIIC). This may be consulted by:

- a) the Police for the purposes of establishing whether a driver's use of the vehicle is likely to be covered by a motor insurance policy and/or for preventing and detecting crime
- b) other UK insurers, the Motor Insurers' Bureau and MIIC may search the MID to ascertain relevant policy information if you have been involved in an accident in the UK or abroad
- c) the DVLA and DVLNI for the purposes of Electronic Vehicle Licensing
- d) persons pursuing a claim in respect of a motor traffic accident (including citizens of other countries) may also obtain relevant information which is held on the MID

You should show this notice to anyone insured to drive the vehicle(s) under this policy.

You can find out more about the Motor Insurance Database and it's use by contacting AXA or at www.miic.org.uk.
